Let's gather our thoughts as haiku, small as snowflakes. Solstice Open House*

During the next few weeks sharpen your pencils and share your thoughts of the season!

Write a haiku:
a 5-7-5 syllable, three line poem and get it to us before Monday, Dec., 14th We're going to celebrate the shortest day of the year with short form poetry.
Your haiku will be a part of our festive display!

Then, join us on

Monday, Dec. 21st
5-7 pm

for an open house at the library with light refreshments, seasonal delights and haiku written by your neighbors and friends!
