What's Happening at Parsons Memorial Library!

March Review...

March Madness? Not at Parsons Memorial Library. Instead, we beat cabin fever and the last of the winter blues with some fabulous events. We enjoyed our Monthly Theatre Workshop with MHS Mustang Theatre, sympathized with each other when we changed the clocks, and celebrated the 80s with a wonderful Potluck and 80s Trivia Night. There was SO MUCH great food. There was even a Pac-Man cake! We had so much fun we forgot to take pictures... Oops.

Now, as April gets fully underway, here's a look at our March stats...

Community Book Discussion: Fahrenheit 451

Last summer, we connected with a library in Alfred, New York, called the Alfred Box of Books Library. Recently, we learned that they'll be hosting a Community Book Discussion on Fahrenheit 451 by Ray Bradbury. We decided that we liked this idea so much, we borrowed it, like a library book. We've got copies of both the chapter book and the graphic novel, so please join us Monday, April 14 at 5 p.m. for a community discussion on this still important book. Teens, we'd especially like to hear your thoughts on the book, so please consider joining us at 5 p.m. on Monday for a community conversation on Fahrenheit 451. For more information, please visit our website.
